

South Sweeps North in Senior Bowl For Second Year In A Row

The South Senior All-Stars for the second year in a row swept the North Seniors highlighting the 22nd Maine Soccer Coaches Annual Senior Bowl held at Husson University on Sunday. The first game held at 12 Noon presented soccer fans with a goal fest as the South All-Stars raced by the North All-Stars out scoring them 9 – 5. In the Boy's game the South was led by three different double goal scorers with Shammah Gahomera of Westbrook, Ryan Moody of Bonny Eagle, and Kellen True of Telstar all punching in two apiece. Single goals were scored by Henry Coolidge of Yarmouth, Jackson Fotter of Gorham, and Caleb LaCroix of Seacoast Christian School, all of which were unassisted. South assists were turned in by Noah Stracqualursi of Scarborough, who had two, and Coolidge who had a single one. For the North Seniors goal scorers were Alvaro Valls of John Bapst, who was assisted by Niko Knapp of Old Town, James Kouletsis of Messalonskee, who was aided by Kyle Beaulier of Ashland, Oneka Lowe of Washington Academy, who received a pass from Spencer Miranda of Winslow, while Maulid Abdow of Lewiston and Colby Clarke of Ellsworth were each assisted by Lowe. Goal Keepers for the South were Will Peterson of Cheverus, John Henry Villanueva of Gray New Gloucester, Cameron Cyr of Sacopee Valley, and for the North squad were Logan Butera of Foxcroft Academy, Issiac Christiansen of Sumner, Jacob Flreselling of Easton, Justin Thompson of Schenck, and George Payne of Bangor.

In the second game Senior Girls from the South edged out the North All-Stars by a hard fought score of 2 - 1. Madeline Wood of Madison and Meranda Martin of Richmond each scored single goals and assisted each other to eke out the win over the North. The North All-Stars were led by Austin Taylor of Nokomis goal and Becky Lopez-Anido's of Orono assist. Keepers for the South were Emma Smith of Gorham, Ali Sult of Lisbon, and Samantha West of Valley, while the net minders for the North were Addie Schanz of Mt. Blue, Kaitlin Richards of Orono, and Jordan Durant of Penquis Valley.

